Phipps Discovery Garden Day Offers Family Fun Among the Flowers

Pittsburgh's premier public garden celebrates nature with games, activities and crafts.

Pittsburgh, Pa. – On Saturday, May 23, 2015, families are invited to Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Gardens for Discovery Garden Day, a celebration featuring hands-on fun for all ages. Held from 11 a.m. – 4 p.m. in this outdoor space created just for them, kids will love learning about nature as they play.

Discovery Garden Day activities include games, a pot-a-plant station and crafts. Youth will also enjoy being active outdoors as they explore an oversized bird's nest; climb a giant tree stump; encounter cool, curious and colorful plants; and let their imaginations run wild in Phipps' nature play area.

This celebration is free to attend with the price of Conservatory admission, which is $15 for adults, $14 for seniors and students, and $11 for children ages 2 – 18. Members and kids under 2 enter at no cost.

To learn more about Discovery Garden Day and other family-friendly programs at Phipps, including immersive summer camp opportunities for ages 2 – 13, please visit phipps.conservatory.org.
